MEDICINAL. Sideache, Backache. leadache,

And many other aches to which women are peculiarly subject are generally the result of a diseased condition of the womanly organism. When this diseased condition is cured, sideache, backache, headache, etc., are cured also.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. When these diseases are cured weakness. When these diseases are cured the aches they cause are also cured. the aches they cause are also cured.

"I will drop you a few lines to-day to let you know that I am feeling well now," writes Miss Anme Stephens, of Believille, Wood Co., West Va. "I feel like a new woman. I took several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and of the 'Golden Medical Digovery.' I have no head-ache now, no backache, and no pain in my side any more. No bearing-down pain any more. I think that there is no medicine like Dr. Pierce's medicine. I thank you very much for what you have done for me-your medicine has done me much good."

Entered at the Postoffice Alexandria, Virginia, as second-class matter. TRICKED HER DAUGHTER .- A moth

er stealing the bridegroom from her own daughter is the remarkable story, the particulars of which have just been revealed by a marriage near Durham N. C. The bappy bride was formerly Mrs. Annie Cole, aged thirty-five years. The groom is Luther Bowles, twenty-five years of age, and the disconsolate maiden is the pretty fifteen-year-old daughter of the bride. Its wies and the girl had been sweethearts for months and had determined to marry, but a license could not be secured without the consent of the widow, and that she resolutely declined to give, alleging that her daughter was too young to marry. Finally, however, after she had been many times importuned, she gave Bowles a note to the Clerk of the County Corut, who duly issued the licetse. The would-be bridegroom returned jayfully to the home of his sweetheart, believing that every obstacle had been swept away, but to his dismay be found that the widow had changed her wind. She called the couple before her and lectured them on the folly of youthful marriage, finally wringing from both a reluctant promise to wait for a year. Bowles made an ineffectual attempt to return the license and get his money back, but to this the clerk would not agree. A few days afterward, however, the paper was changed by the insertion of the name of the girl's mother, who soon thereafter became the wife of Bowles. The bride is a handsome woman and Bowles is said to be satisfied with the change. resolutely declined to give, alleging that has long wished political perferment for her husband.

To accept a popular office like that of Mayor is hardly in keeping with the ambitions of the Duke, whose name has been mentioned in connection with so important a post as that of the Lor Lieutenancy of Ireland. It is possible that the Duke has acted on the advice of experienced friends and will start in at the bottom of the political ladder.

The Duchees, who was formerly Consuelo Vandervilt, will be the first American woman to become a Lady Mayorees, a distinction that is highly prized, especially among the wives of the lesser knights. The duties of their nositions will be a welcome change from the monotony of social duties which the Duke and Duchess share with the members of the nobility. The prediction is made that they will be prediction is made that they will be the most popular of municipal couples.

CO-RESPONDENT IS A "MAN-WOM-AN."-There will be no trial in the Circuit Court at Kimball, Neb., of the divorce case of Baker vs. Baker. Mr. B .ker instituted the suit and named William L. Wallace as co-respondent. Mrs. Baker has filed answer stating that William L Wallace is a woman, and she presents affidavits of a physician and several women.

Wallace went to Kimball four years ago with a wife and uncle. Since that time she has masquerated as a man. Though supposed to be married, Wal-Though supposed to be married, wail-lace was attentive to other women. Once an angry husband beat "him" in-to insecsibility. Recently Wallace and "wife" and uncle left the country. This is the first official notice taken of the affair, and to say that Baker is surprised is putting it lightly.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug etore and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the ready and after civing it a fair the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In a course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in seed of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I considered that a very good recommendation for the remedy."
The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by Richard Gibson.

KINDLY TAKE NOTICE that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those sufferers from massi catarra who cannot inhale freely through the nose, but must treat themselves by spraying. Liquid Cream Balm differs in form, but not medicinally, from the cream balm that has stood for years at the head of remedies for catarrh. It may be used in any nasal atomizer. The price, including a spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists and mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren bucet, New York.
